

LOCAL BREVITIES

Some Things You Know and Some You Don't Know About Our Towns, County & People

—Pickens furnished her quota at the Barnum and Bailey show in Greenville Thursday.

—Dr. L. O. Mauldin and bride, of Greenville, are spending a time with relatives in Pickens.

—Mr. Wm. M. Hagood, jr., and bride, of Easley, are visiting relatives in Pickens this week.

—Wanted: Any one having a good corn mill and farm to rent, communicate with M. C. Williams, Newry, S. C.

—Rev. J. R. Aiken, of Fair Forest, S. C. spent a portion of this week in Pickens with his brother-in-law, Capt. J. T. Taylor.

—The Floyd Featherston Musical Co., held the boards at the Pickens Graded School Auditorium Monday night. All who were present say the entertainment was all right and that they had a nice time.

—Monday being sales day, and a good deal of stuff to be sold, there was a large crowd in town. Most of them came to see how the land sold, some came to bid on it, while others came to attend the meeting of the county Union. The merchants say they did not do as good a business as they did last Saturday.

—Messrs. John Craig and W. O. Willard, of Pickens, have been drawn as jurors at the present term of the U. S. court, now sitting in Columbia, and left for that place last Monday. They will, no doubt, have a good time, as the term is in full blast this week, and every minute will be spent there that they are not sitting on a case.

—Carey & Chastain, the real estate men, have added largely to their list, as published in this paper and can supply you with almost anything you want in the way of a large or small farm or town lot. They have added several large farms and some town lots to their list. When in need of a farm, home, or lot to build on, consult them.

—Married, on October 31st, 1909, at the Presbyterian manse in Liberty, by Rev. John C. Bailey, the officiating minister, Mr. David Urias Mauldin, to Miss Hattie Jane Nix, daughter of Mr. A. Thompson Nix, all of Pickens county. The happy couple have the congratulations of their many friends for a long, happy and prosperous life.

—Married on the 31st ult., at 11 a. m., at the residence of Mr. James T. Dillard, father of the bride, Mr. J. Arthur Atkinson to Miss Artie A. Dillard, both of Pickens county. Rev. W. C. Seaborn, in his usual graceful manner officiating. The happy young couple have the best wishes of their many friends for a happy and prosperous life.

—Wednesday night, about 9 o'clock, fire broke out in the crib of W. T. O'Dell, and when discovered the other crib was also in a blaze, and when the fire had done its devastating work three barns, two cribs, cow stables, cabin and shelters to the amount of ten buildings had been burned. Mr. O'Dell lost 200 bushels of oats, $300 worth of cotton seed, 300 bushels of corn, 16 bales of cotton, two wagons, all of his roughness of various kinds, farming tools, etc. The loss is approximately $5,000 with only $300 of insurance. The dwelling house caught on fire several times but it was kept from burning by heroic work of the neighbors who gathered in quickly. The fire was plainly visible from Pickens. Mr. O'Dell's many friends sympathize with him in his loss.

Salesday was well attended and the lands brought good prices, as a general thing. The Keith lands were bid in by R. E. Bruce for $4095. The Robinson lands were bid in by B. C. Robinson for $4980. S. O. Skelton bought the Chamblin lot in Liberty for $400. Henry Lawrence, col., bought the Tolbert lot in Pickens for $1,000. James Jones bought the Jones land for $400. E. C. Bull bought the Ownby land for $2,205. J. T. Taylor bought the "Lead nine" tract of the R. E. Bowen estate for $400, and H. C. Shirley bought the Timothy O. Bryant tract of the same estate for $500. The land of the Border State Lumber Co., sold for taxes, was bought by J. F. Banister for $200. A tract of 186 acres belonging to H. O. Bowen was sold to C. E. Robinson for $25. Four tracts belonging to estate J. O. Bowen were sold, one bid off by T. J. Mauldin for $2500, one to R. F. Lendhardt for $1800, one to T. J. Mauldin for $1050, and one to T. J. Mauldin for $1,000.

—Miss Cassie Bolt, who has been spending a time with friends and relatives in Anderson, has returned to her home in Pickens.

—Yesterday (Wednesday) the market price of cotton in Pickens was 15.02½. Pretty fair price, this, and it might pay you to sell at this figure.

—Mr. J. P. Farrow of near Toccoa, Ga., is on a visit to his nephew, W. M. Johnson, the shingle man, who resides in the Hagood mill section of the county.

—J. W. Hester and George Corbin has bought the outfit from D. F. Pace and contemplate operating a pool room and cafe in the room now occupied by the barber shop.

—J. D. Mauldin, of the Mile Creek section bought a lot at Norris, at the recent sale of lots at that place. He contemplates erecting a store-room and selling goods there later on.

—B. F. Mauldin is building a nice and commodious house on his farm below Mile Creek church, while S. B. Dalton is putting up a good, substantial, house on his place right at the church.

—Will Ferguson asks the person who got agood black coat out of Paris Sizemore's place of business during Fair week, probably through mistake, to please return it at once to the place where he got it.

—Salesday produced several embryonic candidates. Several were seen plotting, laying plans and feeling of their chances to enter the race. This is pretty soon and there is a heap of cold weather ahead yet.

—Mr. J. D. Morgan, of the Keowee side of the county, was in Pickens Monday and was a welcome caller at this office. He is the kind of a man that suits the newspaper reporter for a lot of good stuff can be gotten from him.

—A. S. Porter, Pickens' popular barber, has sold his shop to J. Lem Thomas and has retired to private life, and will farm another year, on his place above Hagood's Mill. Arthur's friends and customers hate to see him leave but hope he has not quit his trade for good.

—James E. Parsons, of the Liberty side has bought the B. J. Johnson home place just below Norris and will move to it soon. Jim is a good farmer and will soon have a nice productive farm out of this place. He has already been offered a good round sum for his bargain but would not sell.

It is said by those who live in that section, that the roads in the western part of the county, and especially around Mile Creek Church, are in the best condition they have ever been. Supervisor Looper has just been through that section and given it a thorough working out, and to him is the praise being given.

—The Pickens County Layman Missionary will be held at Pickens, S. C., in the School Auditorium, the fourth Sunday in November (28th inst). Prominent Laymen of the state will be present and make addresses. All churches in the county are requested to be represented.

J. R. Ashmore, Chair. Advertising Committee.

—The six-month-old baby of Ves Ellenburg, living in the western part of county, was burned to death recently. It seems that he and his wife were milking and the child was left at the house with the other children when in some way it was severely burned either from the lamp or the fire and died during the night. The bereaved parents have the sympathy of many friends.

—The nine-months-old son of Mr. and Mrs. B. P. Martin of Easley, died on the 27th ult., after a short illness and was laid to rest the day following in Westview Cemetery. The sympathy of many friends is extended to the bereaved parents in this their hour of sorrow. But they should not grieve, for it is written, "Suffer little children to come unto me, and forbid them not, for of such is the Kingdom of Heaven."

—Mr. L. Ross Eaton, one of the most prominent and popular citizens of the county died at his home in Central on Tuesday night, at about 8 o'clock. Mr. Eaton was one of the land-marks of Central being one of the first mercantile firms to open up there and by his integrity and fair dealing he amassed quite a handsome competency. He leaves a widow and one daughter, Mrs. I. M. Mauldin, of Pickens, besides a host of relatives and friends to mourn his death. For some time he had been in bad health and his troubles made such inroads on his system that the skill of physicians availed nothing. His remains were interred at Mount Zion cemetery on Thursday evening, at 4 o'clock, a large concourse of sorrowing friends attending the obsequies. Peace to his ashes.

Earle—Fendley.

Married, on last Tuesday evening, the 2d instant, at 2 p. m., at the home of Mrs. G. W. Earle, the mother of the bride, Miss Essie, the eldest daughter, to Mr. W. Elbert Fendley, both of our city. Rev. D. L. Lander, pastor of the bride, performing the ceremony.

Immediately after the ceremony luncheon was served and the happy couple boarded the 3:20 train for a trip to the city by the sea.

The presents were numerous handsome and costly and attest the esteem in which the young folks are held and will serve as life-long mementoes.

The bride is one of our choicest young ladies. From a little girl she has grown up in our midst, honored by old and young alike.

The groom is from one of our best families, a graduate of the South Carolina College, and for the past two years has been practicing law in this city. He is considered one of the substantial and coming young men of the county, who will make his mark.

The congratulations on the happy event are numerous and this paper is greatly pleased on this occasion to add its hearty good wishes to those being so freely given.

Dry Goods, Shoes, Underwear, etc.

To the readers of the Sentinel-Journal:

You are hearing of HIGHER prices. I am glad to say that I believe Cotton will be higher. I am also glad to say that I have bought one of the largest and best selected stocks of goods—piece goods, men's and women's underwear, blankets, shoes—in a word, a stock of goods suited to the needs of the general public, that I have ever had, and I say to you MOST POSITIVELY that my prices are NO HIGHER, and on some goods LOWER than last season.

I do not advertise to give away goods—to sell a 10c. article for 5c.—I can't do that. But compare MY GOODS and PRICES with the "give aways" and if I do not give better values, I will not ask you to buy. I want your trade and will do all I can, LEGITIMATELY, to get it. I promise you
